

Your frontline workers are crucial to the success of your business. It is an ongoing challenge to connect with them as they are so widely spread. You can now change that. It's never been easier to add your frontline employees to Workplace.

Whether they are hourly, contingent or temporary, you can easily get your frontline workforce on Workplace with Frontline Add-on included in the Workplace Advanced and Enterprise plans, at a reduced price.

Today, with the Frontline Add-on, you can:

Provide a familiar, intuitive and mobile-first tool that employees know and love to communicate and collaborate.

Enable login with access codes for frontline workers who don't have a work email address.

Easily manage your frontline staff's access with Frontline Membership.

Set custom terms according to your company policies to help frontline workers manage their access outside working hours.

Business is better when people are connected, including the frontline workforce who usually have great ideas on how to improve customer service or operations as they work on the ground.

The Total Economic Impact™ study of Workplace conducted by Forrester Consulting shows that frontline workers using Workplace can be:

21%

Quicker to provide feedback to their management.

25%

Faster to collaborate with their peers.

34%

More efficient to receive company news and updates.
